

Journey Ministries was founded by Lee, Becky, and Aaron Wisdom. Lee and Becky have started a ministry in Puerto Rico where they are now living. James and Rhonda Fuller now administer the program in Panama, under Lee Wisdom's auspices.

The Panama Ministry is based out of Boquete, Panama and our home church is Boquete Bible Fellowship. They feed us spiritually so we can, in turn, be filled up to minister to others. We often set up Bible clubs for children and young people, and teach in the local public schools. This is huge. Here in Panama, we have much more freedom within the school than we would have in the US. We are able to share the gospel, and bring an atmosphere of Christian education to those we serve. We have a very solid approach in the schools and have even been publicly recognized and praised by government officials on multiple occasions.

The relationships and trust we have built with key leaders in the education system has really granted us the freedom to do almost anything we want within the schools. We sometimes partner with other ministries in the area. God has been so good to us and has opened so many doors for our ministry here.

We are always in need of people to help teach in our after school programs and Bible clubs. We always need translators to help in our efforts within the schools. We need financial support, and most importantly we need your prayers. We are engaged in a constant spiritual warfare as we expand our Father's Kingdom on earth. We live to fight the good fight and to bring Him glory. Would you consider joining and partnering with us?
